GENESIS 10

12/8/21

While some may find this chapter boring, it's referred to as significant due to being the closest approach to the distribution of peoples in a genealogical framework. Why does this truth matter?

What's the relevance of genealogies in the Bible?

Why is Nimrod singled out for special mention?

While Nimrod being singled out may look like an honorable mention, it's not. Why was he in rebellion to God?

What can we learn from Nimrod?
